

DAVID J. MEYER

Vice President and Chief Counsel for Regulatory and Governmental Affairs
Avista Corp.

David J. Meyer is vice president and chief counsel for regulatory and governmental affairs for Avista Corp. He joined the company in 1998.

Meyer is a native of Glendive, Montana, and is a graduate of Valparaiso University, where he received political science and economics degrees. He is a 1978 graduate of Cornell University Law School. Meyer joined the Spokane law firm Paine Hamblen Coffin Brooke and Miller in 1978 and was a partner in the firm for 17 years. While with Paine Hamblen, Meyer represented Avista Corp. in a number of areas, including regulatory and business-related capacities.

In addition to his work at Avista Corp., Meyer currently serves on the board of directors of the Lilac Blind Foundation and the board of trustees for the Spokane Symphony. He is a member of the Washington State Bar Association, Spokane County Bar Association and the Federal Energy Bar Association.